What Parents Are Saying

Community

- "The amount of community that the school has, creates an atmosphere where all the families are bonded thru the experiences we share. We have been very happy to have found this school and wish we would have started in preschool."
- "The sense of belonging and camaraderie among students, parents, and faculty is truly remarkable. Regular community events, collaborative projects, and a welcoming atmosphere contribute to a positive and inclusive environment."

Education

- "The dedication to fostering intellectual, emotional, and creative growth is truly exceptional. The curriculum seamlessly integrates arts, music, and practical skills, allowing our child to thrive in a well-rounded environment."
- "Wishing Well School provides a Waldorf based education that embraces the whole child. There are many aspects of this school we love, the education speaks for itself, promoting academic excellence, artistic expression and fostering a joy for learning. The faculty are warm and meet each child where they are in their own developmental journey."

Teachers

- "The teachers truly care on a deep level about their students and work hard to create an effective model of education that foster intellectual, emotional and character growth. I highly recommend this school!!"
- "The teachers are excellent. They really see each child for who they are in front of them and respect and honor their journey towards "self". They share why they teach what they're teaching and provide a living curriculum that creates an environment. My children love school and are excited to go every day."
